Circular dated 19th August 1947.

To

All Drawing Officers in Bangalore.

Re.—Classification of bills presented to the Pay Section of this office into Token and Non-Token Bills.

No. 45—P.S. The Drawing Officers in Bangalore are at present forwarding their bills either to the Pay Section or to the Tappal Section of this office. Bills received in the Pay Section are treated as Token Bills as a Token is issued in respect of each bill and those received in the Tappal Section as Non-Token Bills. Some Departmental Officers do not appear to be aware of this distinction between Token and Non-Token Bills. Due to this cause, Tokens have been obtained for bills which should in the usual course, have been treated as Non-Token Bills. In such cases, some of the cheques are remaining undelivered for a long time in the Pay Section of this office on account of the drawer not having received the cheque by surrendering the relative token and the payee also being ignorant of the cheque being ready for delivery, he not being the tokenholder. The work in this office has also increased thereby on account of the classification of a large number of bills as token bills unnecessarily. With a view to remedy the defects referred to above and to secure uniformity in procedure, the principles underlying the classification of bills into token and non-token ones are enunciated below for information and guidance of all Departmental Officers.

Tokens will be issued by this office only if the drawer and the payee of any bill are one and the same. The following are some of the bills which are treated as Token Bills:—

(1) Salaries and T. A. of Gazetted Officers and their Establishments,
(2) Contingent Bills of Offices,
(3) Bills for Advances and Loans, etc., which are to be encashed at the Treasury by the Drawing Officers themselves, e.g., Advance of Pay, Permanent Advances etc.
(4) Bills for Cycle Advances, House Building Advances, Motor Car Advances, Provident Fund Advances, etc., of Gazetted and Non-Gazetted Officers presented by countersigning officers and payable in Bangalore.

The following kinds of bills are classified as Non-Token Bills:—

(1) Bills for supplies and services countersigned by Departmental Officers but payable direct to private parties or other Departments whether in Bangalore or outside.
(2) Bills of subordinate officers countersigned by Departmental Officers in Bangalore and payable at places other than Bangalore.

It is requested that the departmental officers in Bangalore may kindly note the distinction between Token and Non-Token Bills as explained above and give effect to the procedure with immediate effect.

If any Officer wants certain Non-Token Bills to be treated as Token Bills for sufficient reasons, he may make a reference to the Comptroller on the subject.
